Examination Guidelines
UNIVERSITI SAINS ISLAM MALAYSIA (2012)

These Examination Guidelines are released as guidance about the procedures in managing, coordinating and supervising the implementation of examinations in Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (USIM). It also describe the examination regulations which the students of USIM must comply with.

These Guidelines shall be read together with the Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (Bachelor's Degree with Honours) Regulations 2007 (First Amendment, 2011), which was validated by the 64th University Senate Meeting on August 3, 2011.

(A) GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS OF EXAMINATION

1. Final examination will be held in the 16th to 18th week as set according to the Academic Calendar.
2. The Division of Academic Management (BPA) will issue an instruction letter to prepare for examination information/resource materials to the Faculty/Centre in the 4th week of lectures.
3. The examination information materials must reach BPA no later than the 7th week of lectures for the preparation of examination schedule.
4. The list of students barred from examination must reach BPA on the 14th week of lectures.
5. Students who fail to settle their study fee within specified time are not allowed to continue their study and thus not allowed to sit for the Final Examination.
6. Students are required to check and confirm the list of courses they registered for examination via eStudent in the 11th week of lectures. Failure to obey this instruction may cause students to be barred from examination of certain courses.
7. All bachelor students must do the Online Assessment of Course and Teaching (e-Nilai) before they print the Final Examination Schedule Slip.
8. Any overlaps of the Final Examination Schedule should be reported to the BPA no later than the 15th week before the e-Nilai begins.
9. Academic Staff need to ensure their presence at the University during examination weeks.
10. Academic Staff are allowed to be at the examination location 15 minutes before the examination starts and 30 minutes after the examination begins.

(B) PREPARATION OF THE FINAL EXAMINATION PAPERS

1. BPA will issue an instruction letter to prepare the Final Examination Question Papers to the Dean of Faculty/Director of the Centre in the 4th week of lectures.
2. Each Faculty/Centre is required to prepare 2 sets of questions (Set A and Set B) in the form of hardcopy along with the answer scheme (OMR only) and the complete OMR marking form with the feed backs must reach BPA within 2 months from the date of instruction.
3. Set A will be used in the Final Examination while Set B will be used in the Replacement Exam. If Set B was not used, the Faculty/Centre is allowed to use it for the next Final Examination.
4. Each Faculty/Centre is required to use the Check List for Preparation of Final Examination Papers (Appendix 1).
5. All question papers shall be prepared according to the prescribed format. For the purpose of uniformity, the Faculty/Centre shall use the standard front page format given (Appendix 2).
6. All examination papers prepared shall go through a revision and editing (vetting) process at the Faculty/Centre to ensure the quality and suitability of questions.
7. The date of meeting for the revision and editing (vetting) process of examination paper is subject to scheduling tentative of Faculty/Centre.

8. The Final Examination Papers must reach BPA by hand in hadrcopy within the specified period. Submission of exam papers in the form of softcopy is definitely not allowed.

(C) SECURITY OF QUESTION PAPERS

1. Question papers shall be kept in an external storage (diskette/thumb drive/CD) and the computer is not connected to a computer network system/internet to prevent unwanted excess.
2. Any damaged copies of question papers during the preparation and printing process shall be shredded using a paper shredder. The completely printed question papers should be kept in a sealed envelope and marked as 'CONFIDENTIAL' on it.
3. Administrative and Academic staff who are directly or indirectly involved in preparing the examination papers shall be fully responsible for the security and confidentiality of the examination questions.
4. Disciplinary action shall be taken against any staff who is found guilty to reveal or attempt to reveal, abet in revealing or has been negligent to cause the leakage of information or examination questions.

(D) ARRANGEMENTS OF EXAMINATION HALL

1. BPA will determine which hall/lecture room to serve as the location for examination.
2. Desks are arranged in an appropriate distance (about 1 metre) between each other and labelled with numbers on the upper right corner of the desks.
3. The examination hall will be equipped with speakers, audio system and clock which can be heard and seen by students.

(E) APPOINTMENT OF HEAD INVIGILATORS AND INVIGILATORS.

1. The Head Invigilators/Invigilators shall be appointed three (3) weeks before the final examination of each semester.
2. Appointed Invigilators shall be among lecturers who do not teach the course that is undergoing examination on that day.
3. Appointed Head Invigilators shall not be among non-citizen lecturers.
4. Appointed Head Invigilators and Invigilators shall be fair and honest during examination supervision.
5. One Head Invigilator will be appointed for each examination location.
6. Appointed Invigilators who are unable to perform their duty on the prescribed date and time must fill in Form AKAD D/23 or Form AKAD D/24 for replacement purpose and submit it to BPA.
7. Academic staff who substitute shall be among other academic staff of the same or almost the same field.
8. If the examination is conducted in a large hall, the ratio of invigilators to candidates is 1:200.

9. Academic staff who are not appointed as Invigilators are not allowed to be in the examination hall during exam except the Examination Secretariats from the Division of Academic Management.

GUIDELINES FOR POSTPONEMENT OF STUDIES FOR STUDENTS

OBJECTIVE

The objective of these guidelines is to provide a guide to faculties and students regarding the procedure and process of postponement of studies.

DEFINITION

The postponement of studies means having permission not to continue with one's studies for a particular semester whether the student has registered for courses or not.

CONDITIONS/PROCEDURE OF POSTPONEMENT OF STUDIES

1. The postponement of a student's studies can be considered under the following conditions:
 - a. For health reasons:
 - i. Students who are sick for a lengthy period of time with confirmation from a medical officer/doctor. In the case of mental illness, permission to register again will depend on the report given by the medical officer/doctor who is treating the student.
 - ii. Students who have been confirmed by a medical officer/doctor to be pregnant for six (6) months and above on the first day of registration are advised to postpone their studies to the following semester.
 - b. Students facing other problems (including financial, family, language, personal and various problems due to reasons other than health) that can interfere with the student's studies in a particular semester.
2. The postponement of studies depends on the consideration and approval of the Dean of the Faculty.
3. Applications for the postponement of studies can be made until the tenth week of a particular semester. Applications received after the tenth week will not be considered except for applications received from students with health reasons and that have been confirmed by a medical officer/doctor to hinder them from continuing their studies.
4. The semester that is involved in the postponement of studies due to health reasons does not count as part of the maximum requirements that are allowed for a student to qualify for conferrment of a degree. However, the semester that is involved in the postponement of studies for other reasons will count as part of the maximum requirements for the conferrment of a degree.
5. The duration of postponement of studies cannot exceed two (2) consecutive semesters except for confirmed health reasons. The maximum duration for postponement of studies depends on the maximum duration of studies for a particular student and that in turn depends on the regulations of his/her program of study, with the exception for health reasons. The maximum duration of study in relation to the regular duration of study is as follows:

No.	Duration of study (semester)	Maximum Duration of study (semester)
1	6	10
2	8	12
3	10	14
4	12	16

6. An application needs to be made for every semester of postponement of studies that exceed one (1) semester..
7. Students who have been given permission to postpone their studies for a particular semester should register again for the following semester. For students whose application for postponement was not approved, they have to continue their studies as usual.
8. In the case of students whose applications for postponement of studies were not approved for a particular semester, but they still did not continue their studies (meaning they did not register for courses for that semester), these students will be given the status of "Not Registered". Students who fail to register for courses for a duration of two (2) consecutive semesters will be terminated from their studies by the University Senate.
9. A student who has been approved to postpone his studies will lose his status as an USIM student and accordingly he does not have the right to get or use USIM's facilities which are ordinarily given to regular students until he registers again after the end of the period of postponement.
10. The Student Visa of an International student who has been approved to postpone his studies will be terminated, but it may be reissued if the student registers again in the following semester.
11. The stipulation of fees in the semester included in the postponement period is as follows:

No.	Duration of Application	Percentage of Fees stipulated
		Tuition Fees	Other Fees
1	Before the beginning of classes of a particular semester	* 0%	* 0%
2	The first two (2) weeks of classes of a particular semester	* 25%	100%
3	The Third to Tenth week of classes of a particular semester	* 50%	100%
4	After the tenth week of classes of a particular semester	100%	100%

* Payment made will be reimbursed based on the remaining percentage of fees and the duration of application for the postponement of studies.

PROCEDURE FOR UNDERTAKING POSTPONEMENT OF STUDIES

1. Students need to apply for postponement of studies by completing the postponement of studies form that can be obtained from the respective faculty. The application form is as in Appendix A.
2. Students need to submit the completed application form to the faculty office for consideration.
3. The Dean of the Faculty will consider granting an approval for the said application.
4. After consideration is given, the faculty authorities need to update and fill up the relevant sections of the application form and send the decision taken regarding the applicant's request for postponement of studies to the student.
5. The faculty will photocopy the application form after due consideration has been given and send it to the Academic Management Division (BPA).
6. The Academic Management Division (BPA) has to update the status of the said student in the system based on information in the photocopied version of the application form.
7. The flow chart of the postponement of studies is as shown in Appendix B.
